Maria –

Thank you for your response. We are available at 5 pm ET tomorrow, per the JDG's request. We will circulate a meeting invite shortly.

Additionally, Plaintiff intends to modify the draft scheduling order to include the following:

- On November 1, each defendant group will indicate whether they will agree not to launch at risk until a district court decision or otherwise agree to provide 60-day notice prior to any at-risk launch.
- On November 15 (or a date convenient for the Court), we will ask that the court hold a status conference to discuss an orderly preliminary injunction briefing schedule for any defendant group who does not agree to the request above.
- On November 8, the parties will submit a joint letter to the court concerning the issues to be discussed at the November 15 status conference regarding the need for PI briefing, and which defendant groups will be participating in PI motion practice.

Finally, we believe it would be helpful to also discuss on the call tomorrow if any defendant group objects to consolidation, as discussed in my email from earlier today (attached for your reference and convenience).

We look forward to discussing this with the Joint Defense Group tomorrow.

Best,
Ryan

Subject: RE: Activity in Case 2:24-cv-07811-BRM-CLW AMERICAN REGENT, INC. v. XIROMED, LLC et al Order

Counsel—

Defendants' proposed schedule is not feasible given the current posture of these matters, which are not subject to a 30-month stay as to the great majority of Defendants. This is particularly important given that one or more defendants have openly stated that they intend to launch at risk and/or will not provide 60-day notice prior to any at-risk launch.

Consequently, unless all defendants agree not to launch until after a district court decision issues, defendants' prolonged proposed schedule ensures that the parties will need to burden the Court with preliminary injunction motions practice. Recognizing the burden such a motion would place on the Court and the parties, ARI proposed a schedule based on an expedited schedule previously entered by Judge Waldor in a case with similar positioning. See Sumitomo Dainippon Pharma Co., Ltd. V. Emcure Pharmaceuticals Ltd, C.A. No. 18-cv-02065, ECF No. 25 (D.N.J. Apr. 19, 2018).

We cannot, therefore, agree to Defendants' schedule as currently drafted. Please provide your availability to meet and confer this week, so that the parties may promptly seek the Court's guidance.

Best,
Ryan

Ryan –

Defendants have been working diligently on a proposed schedule, but as I'm sure you can appreciate, there have been a lot of moving parts here given the large number of defendants in this case. We should have Defendants' proposal to you by 1pm ET tomorrow. Once you have had an opportunity to review, we can have a meet-and-confer if necessary.

Counsel—

It has been nearly three weeks since we circulated a proposed schedule, and we've still not heard back from defendants. Judge Waldor was clear in her expectation that the case proceed expeditiously, and instructing the parties to submit a proposed schedule by 9/23.

Please circulate your edits to the proposed schedule by 5 PM ET tomorrow. If we do not hear from you, ARI will be forced to seek relief from the Court to order cooperation from defendants.

Counsel:

You have had American Regent's proposed schedule in the Selenious Acid cases for over two weeks, and have yet to accept the schedule or provide a counterproposal. As you know, Judge Waldor strongly suggested that the parties submit a schedule to the Court by September 23, 2024. Please confirm that you will circulate your response by Monday, September 16, 2024 so the parties have time to meet-and-confer and discuss with their clients.
